SSL Certificate Renewal

A certificate must be renewed no later than thirty days before its expiry date. The service owner must record the renewal in the change log before the certificate is installed.

Escalation

If a renewal fails twice, the duty manager must be notified within one hour of the second failure.